Randy Singer (Author of The Justice Game)

Before I started THE JUSTICE GAME, it had one strike against it. In the forward, Singer talks about the issue of gun control and the second amendment. While writing the book, he put a couple of fake closing arguments on his website and had readers vote on the most convincing case, and that became the end of the book.

The Justice Game: Amazon.co.uk: Randy Singer ...

The Justice Game is different from Randy Singer's earlier novels because of the personal nature of this story. Early in his own career, Singer tried a very similar case after a young man gunned down a teacher at the school Randy's kids attended. Thankfully they were not in attendance that day. I have nothing but respect and admiration for Randy ...

Reviews | Randy Singer

The Justice Game is a suspenseful legal thriller that successfully presents both sides of a very contentious issue in the public spotlight today. While some of the elements in the story (hopefully) don't exist, like Justice, Inc and their hedge schemes, the core issues of the legal case -- who's legally responsible for gun violence -- are very real.

Based on a real-life case attorney Randy Singer tried ten years ago, The Justice Game artfully portrays both sides of the gun rights debate. Interestingly, Singer didn't set out to convert anyone. He told me, "I wanted to write a book so balanced that both sides would look at it and say, `That fairly represents our case.'"

The Justice Game by Randy Singer (2009, Trade Paperback ...

"The Justice Game" is an accomplished thriller, with deep themes, great characters, and maybe the best writing yet from Mr. Singer. With nine novels under his belt, and no signs of slowing, Singer is the surest--but certainly not the safest--bet in this sometimes rehashed genre.

The storyline is based on a real-life case that Singer was involved in and the verdict in The Justice Game was decided on by readers from Randy Singer's website. Though not everyone will agree on the verdict (I am not going to say what it is so not to spoil the book for anyone who reads it), all will agree that this is a must read book!

The Justice Game (Audiobook) by Randy Singer | Audible.com

The Justice Game by Randy Singer is chiefly a book that examines the topic of gun control in relation to the Second Amendment. Several other topics, however, such as the importance of confession and family, arise throughout the book. During a broadcast, an anchorwoman is murdered on the set by a criminal she exposed.

The Justice Game by Randy Singer, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

To some people in today's world, the legal system is a game. Greed is the idea behind the game in Randy Singer's story. If you like crime/law suspense novels, you will probably enjoy this one. I will definitely be picking up more of Randy Singer's books.

The Justice Game by Randy Singer - Goodreads

"Veteran attorney Singer turns out another admirable legal thriller that will again draw comparisons to the inestimable John Grisham. Singer skillfully loosens the strings [of the story] and reweaves them into a tale that entertains, surprises, and challenges readers to rethink justice and mercy." PUBLISHERS WEEKLY on The Last Plea Bargain
